MACQ 01

A storytelling hotel.

The breeze along Hobart's waterfront carries a thousand captivating stories of those that were here before us - a cast of remarkable characters, each with an intriguing story to tell. In this place, the Mouheneenner people fished and forged dreams in the Derwent shallows; the first Europeans set foot ashore Van Diemen's Land and an industry was borne amid the bustle of Hunter Island. Today, this precinct is home to MACq 01 where the stories of these colourful characters are shared in a setting of informal luxury. This is a storytelling hotel.

LOCATION

MACq 01 lives on Hunter Street on the old Hunter Island, one of the earliest sites of European settlement in Tasmania. Surrounded by yachts, docks, convict-built sandstone warehouses and a huge expanse of open water, the hotel boasts gorgeous views alongside supreme convenience. Only five minutes from the city and famous Salamanca Square, MACq 01 is the perfect place to start telling your own Tasmanian story.

OLD WHARF RESTAURANT

Through its design, Old Wharf Restaurant tells the story of industry in Tasmania, capturing the tough life of the early industrial pioneers in mining, whaling, fishing, boat building and farming. The hardy environment of those early days is reflected in the restaurant's raw and robust design elements, incorporating iodised steel and recycled wharf timbers. Led by Saffire Freycinet's former Head Chef Simon Pockran, Old Wharf Restaurant's seafood focus perfectly complements the backdrop of passing cray boats. From the restaurant's dockside deck, you'll be in thanking distance of our hardy fishermen.

THE STORY BAR

The Story Bar is inspired by the egalitarian nature of Tasmanian society, where class divisions are less obvious. With this in mind, our bar team offer everything from draught beer to the finest wine and spirits in an enigmatic watering hole, adorned with newspaper headlines from decades past. To truly understand Tasmania, one must know its people and how they interact - The Story Bar makes for an iconic backdrop.

EVOLVE SPIRITS BAR

As a luxury bar, Evolve offers a sophisticated and intimate hospitality experience on Hobart's historic waterfront. Its ornate design, rare spirits list and engaging service are befitting of Hobart's most enviable wharfside location, within MACq 01 Hotel building.
