COVID-Safe

YOUR SAFETY IS OUR PRIORITY

Here at The Old Woolstore we have stayed open to the public right through the COVID-19 pandemic.

In the depth of lockdown, we were a safe haven for Essential Travellers, and we adapted to operate under the strict protocols of Government restrictions.

Operating during these challenging times meant that we needed to have our finger on the pulse, which we continue to do today.

Rest assured that our practices both front and back-of-house are best in class. The safety of the community is at the forefront of how we carry out our events. There are multiple hand sanitiser stations available around the property, as well as contact tracing with the Tasmanian Government's Check In Tas app.
